Head of Veterinary Pathology

School of Veterinary Medicine

Location: Guildford

Salary: Salary up to £71,384 (Plus 10% Veterinary Market Allowance with MRCVS)

Post Type: Full Time

Advert Placed: Friday 02 November 2018

Closing Date: Sunday 02 December 2018

Reference: 087018

We are seeking a motivated and enthusiastic Head of Veterinary Pathology to lead our team of board-certified pathologists and investigation officers, based in the School of Veterinary Medicine and our £11m purpose built state-of-the-art Veterinary Pathology Centre based in Guildford, Surrey.

This is an exciting opportunity to join the Department of Pathology and Infectious Diseases in a Professional Services post. The post holder will have the opportunity to play a leading role in helping to shape and grow the business and reputation of the University's Veterinary Pathology Centre, through partnership working. The role will also contribute to supporting the diagnostic activities of the Veterinary Pathology Centre, and education and research programmes.

You will be an MRCVS, ideally with FRCPath/ECVP/ACVP and have experience of managing a team and associated resource. You will have excellent communication skills, an appetite for strategic thinking and innovation, and be able to work well in a team. In this strategic role, you will be supported by a Business Development Manager and a team of veterinary surgeons, board-certified pathologists, scientists and skilled technical staff.

For informal enquiries please contact Professor Roberto La Ragione (r.laragione@surrey.ac.uk), Head of the Department of Pathology and Infectious Diseases.
